DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 30 and 31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by GB 643,503.

The reference discloses an apparatus consisting of a series of two reactors suitable for a hydroformylation reaction, a means for removal of catalyst residues from the hydroformylation product, a reactor for hydrogenation of catalyst-free hydroformylation product, a means for recycling unreacted hydrogen from hydrogenation stage to second hydroformylation, and a means for recycling unreacted hydroformylation gases (see fig. 1-3 and description thereof). This apparatus anticipates the instant claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 32 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over GB 643,502.

The instant claim limits the apparatus to one constructed of duplex stainless steel. The reference does not expressly teach what the apparatus taught therein is made of. However, since duplex stainless steel is well-known to be pressure resistant, it would have been obvious to a person having ordinary skill in the art to use an apparatus comprising said material if the reaction conditions of a given process deemed it so necessary.

Allowable Subject Matter

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the prior art of record is replete with hydroformylation reactions using multiple reactors under recycle conditions. However, there is nothing taught in the art that would have led a person having ordinary skill in the art to separate an offgas having a concentration of carbon monoxide, from a hydroformylation product, wherein said offgas has a partial pressure of greater than 7 barg. This limitation, according to the instant specification limits the amount of catalytic plating of the reactor, which impedes production in the hydroformylation reaction.

Claim Objections

Claim 17 is objected to because of the following informalities: line 1 of the claim has a letter "t" that is out of place. Also, the claim should conform to proper Markush language. Appropriate correction is required.
